ABOUT GENOA

Genoa is a lovely city, where classy boutiques, historical shops and lively open-air markets will amaze the most demanding tourist.

Experience Genoa is also discover the several souls that compose it.

The nineteenth century neighborhood, the fishing-village in the East and West, with houses and picturesque glimpses, and the ones in the hinterland, with their untouched traditions.

The stage images and the views, appreciated also as film set, are the frame for an intense cultural life: unique museums, great theatrical and musical tradition, important exhibitions and great international shows, such as the Euroflora and the International Boat Show.

The Aquarium will provide a lot of activities to sea-loving visitors; such as equipped beaches, water sports.
